

Disqualifiers

Illegal Drug Usage:

Use of marijuana within the past two years.

Use of any other illegal drug or drugs not legally prescribed to you within the past five years.

Character:

Applicants must be of good moral character and habits. A final conviction for any misdemeanor crime of domestic violence or felony can automatically disqualify applicant. Probation for a felony will be considered a final conviction. Applicants will be investigated as to the truth of the statements made in their applications or during oral interviews, their character, habits, previous employment, and other matters necessary to establish the qualities of the individual.

Traffic and Criminal Records: Disqualifiers

Any of the following can disqualify the applicant:

Having been on or currently on court-ordered supervision or probation for any offense of the grade of felony or Class A misdemeanor;

Having been convicted of any offense of the grade of felony or Class A misdemeanor;

Having been on or currently on court-ordered supervision or probation for any criminal offense of the grade of Class B misdemeanor within the last ten years;

Having been convicted of an offense of the grade of a Class B misdemeanor within the last ten years;

Having been convicted of a family violence offense;

Currently being under indictment;

Being prohibited by state or federal law from operating a motor vehicle;

Being prohibited by state or federal law from possessing firearms or ammunition;

Having had a driver license suspension for habitual violator in the last five years;

Having been convicted of four or more hazardous traffic violations within the last 12 months;
Having been convicted of seven or more hazardous traffic violations within the last 24 months;
Currently on probation for any traffic offense;
Having been adjudged a delinquent child within the last 10 years;
Having sold, manufactured, distributed or cultivated illegal drugs, including marijuana;
Having committed theft(s) while in a position of trust or in a pattern that shows habitual theft;
Having a history of illegal drug use that tends to establish a pattern above that of experimental drug use;
Having committed sufficient criminal activities to establish a pattern of disregard for the law;
Having committed any crime of a serious or aggravated nature including, but not limited to, criminal homicide, kidnapping, sexual assault, sexual assault of a child, indecency with a child, incest, felony assault;
Having been involved with seditious movements, terrorist activities, or any efforts to violently overthrow the United States government;
Having been convicted of the offense of barratry; and
The applicant's driver license has been suspended for refusal to submit to a chemical test within the last ten years; or

Other indications of criminal history will be individually evaluated.

Contact the Dickinson Police Department and ask to speak to a Captain regarding any questions:

701-456-7759